A MESSAGE FROM FATHER MICHAEL . . .

Good Shepherd Sunday

The fourth Sunday of Easter is always celebrated as Good Shepherd Sunday. We recall that Jesus is the Good Shepherd who tends to his flock. In caring for the sheep, the shepherd provides for those entrusted to his care. The sheep learn the voice of the shepherd so that the shepherd is not a stranger. If we become intimate with Jesus, he is truly more than just a brother and friend. He is indeed the savior shepherd who leads us to the safety of God's kingdom. Jesus nurtures us with words and example so that we too have what we need to grow spiritually and follow the ways laid out for our happiness. If we seek perfect human fulfillment, we should observe the good shepherd and listen to his commands. This is what offers us eternal life where no harm can ever come upon us.

When we have properly cared for our formation in the faith, we can become like the disciples in the first reading who were filled with joy as they boldly proclaimed the grace of God offered to us through Jesus Christ! So, let us always be attentive to our spiritual life and stay close to the Church so that we too can benefit from belonging to the flock entrusted to Jesus. That is good motivation for us to always be aware of learning opportunities. The Catholic faith is rich and requires constant attention so that we might better understand what the Church teaches for our own benefit.

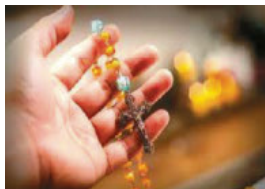

While our classroom religious education program has come to a completion for the school year, we have opportunities this summer with Totus Tuus. Let us always eagerly desire to want to actively participate in learning and practicing our faith!

God bless you,
Father Michael Kaluza

Thank you to everyone who donated to the Alpha Women's Center collection for moms and babies during the Lenten season. We had an incredible amount of items (and some cash) donated - our best collection ever! The items will be delivered to Alpha this weekend.

Thanks again for your generosity and God bless you!
