A MESSAGE FROM FATHER MICHAEL . . .

First Communion Weekend

Thank you to all who took part in our Divine Mercy celebration last weekend!

Adoration, prayer, confession and the chaplet are beautiful ways for us to experience the mercy we all need. I am so pleased that we can grow in holiness through the mercy that God bestows upon us. It is also a practical way to put the Gospel into action.

This weekend we have Jesus telling Saint Peter to feed his sheep and offering the invitation to follow him. One of the many ways that we are spiritually fed is to take part in parish life and activities. As we move past the pandemic, we must make an extra effort to once again resume living family life outside of the home in our parish.

Our readings reiterate that message of mercy that is so needed in our lives and world today! The disciples are empowered in the first reading to obey God alone and above all! Their courageous example is an inspiration for all of us. God's ways are always superior to human invention and ideally, they should cooperate in harmony.

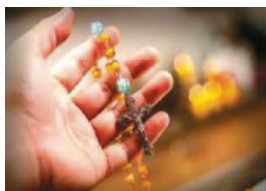

The Gospel reminds us that we are fed with Jesus in the most Blessed Sacrament. Jesus gave that eternal gift to the church to continue to bring forth God's mercy upon us. It is fitting that we are reminded of the great gift of the Eucharist as we celebrate First Communion weekend! It is always an extraordinary day in the life of our parish to share this marvelous sacrament! Congratulations to all our First Communicants and a special thank you to those who have helped to prepare for this very special day! May we always long to be fed by the Lord and desire to grow in holiness!

God bless you,
Father Michael Kaluza

Thank you to everyone who donated to the Alpha Women's Center collection for moms and babies during the Lenten season. We had an incredible amount of items (and some cash) donated - our best collection ever! The items will be delivered to Alpha this weekend.

Thanks again for your generosity and God bless you!

Thank you to our parishioners, community members, and OLP school families for a wonderful evening at the OLP Gala 25th Anniversary Celebration. There was a delicious meal from Fatbellies, many prizes in the Silent and Live Auctions, good cheer and camaraderie, a wonderful video tribute from the OLP students honoring the school's new motto, In Christ We Grow, (a big thank you to Liam Gleason, video editor, 6th grade student), and a jumpstart for the 2025 Fund-a-Need, Outdoor Learning Center. The outpouring support for OLP Catholic School is a tribute to this community and the understanding of the importance of passing on the Catholic Faith.

A huge thank you to all of the Gala sponsors and to the Gala Committee Chairs, Rick and Eve Hennen and Sean and Christina Koehn.
 Congratulations to the Raffle Drawing Winners!
