Loving God, inspire young men and women to hear Your call to the priesthood and religious life. Fill their hearts with a burning desire to serve You and Your people.

MESSAGE FROM FATHER MICHAEL . . .

Listen to the Voice of the Shepherd. The Church calls the Fourth Sunday of Easter Good Shepherd Sunday because the focus of the readings is the relationship between sheep and the shepherd. The shepherd leads, guides and directs the sheep with confidence to protect and satisfy the needs of the sheep. The shepherd knows what the sheep need and the sheep receive the benefits of being cared for by the shepherd.

In our quest for safety and security competing voices challenge us to minimize our risk as we make our way through life. We have to consider the choices that we make and the voices that we follow. Are they the right or wrong voices? Are they helping us to achieve holiness or driving us away from the gate of goodness? Jesus as the gate to the pastures of charity and love shows us the path of well-being and happiness. By following the good shepherd, we can respond to reason and truth; otherwise we become distracted with dangerous and destructive influences that take us off the road to holiness and put us in perilous situations. Jesus tells us that he comes to bring us life in its entirety and abundance. Let us listen to the voice of the good shepherd to bring us safely at the end of our pilgrimage to our true home in heaven. The only gate to heaven is through the Savior, Jesus Christ. May our lives reflect the faith that we profess.

Thank you for all that you do for our parish and school. We are a blessed community!

God bless you,
Father Michael Kaluza
