How to Observe October - Month of the Rosary

1. Pray at least one decade daily; ideally a full Rosary.
2. Attend special parish devotions, processions, or Mass.
3. Offer the month for a particular intention (family, peace, conversion).
4. Use guides or audio Rosaries to deepen meditation.

October's dedication to the Rosary remains one of the Church's most widespread and enduring devotional traditions.

A Message from Father Kaluza . . .

The heart of Christianity is loving God and loving neighbor. These are beautiful readings this week for us to ponder. Loving God and loving neighbor are connected and never opposed.

By loving neighbor, you cannot love God less and by loving God, you cannot love your neighbor less. The core of our being is built to respond to this eternal truth. Sometimes sin interferes and we are misled by the allure of evil, but Jesus never fails to remind us to reset our ways and focus our lives on his teaching, preaching and actions.

The first reading from Exodus reminds us that God's revelation has always been about protecting the vulnerable and reaching out as God has chosen us for himself! Life is a precious gift and must always be nurtured and protected. Exploitation is always a grave matter. Neither the message nor the stories are new, but they must be retold so as not to forget and always remember. It also keeps us grounded in humbly walking with God.

The commandments are all about helping us to live in freedom as sons and daughters of God. They do not hinder or repress us, but liberate us to choose God's ways above all else. The commandments assist us to interact with God and each other. They always are the surest way to know that we are following the will of God, which is to make good, wise and prudent choices.

The message of love and mercy never get old and we are called to share that message with all!

God bless you,

Father Michael Kaluza
